Policy Regarding Utilization of MWDBE Subcontractors

As Wall Street's preeminent Black, Hispanic and Woman owned firm, Siebert Williams Shank & Co., LLC (SWS) believes in the concept and practice of being a good corporate citizen. We are fully committed to the concept and practice of diversity in all facets of our business opportunities: recruiting, hiring and employment; vendor relationships; charitable and community work.

Integrity is a critical foundation of a successful and sustainable business. SWS members have worked diligently throughout the history of our company to foster trusting relationships between SWS and its customers, business partners and vendors. Siebert Williams Shank strives to adhere to the highest ethical standards as it pertains to all aspects of its operation. SWS does not discriminate against minority and women owned businesses in its own procurement of goods, supplies and services. In such instances, minority groups and agencies, e.g. government, educational, civic and/or community study groups, should be consulted for the purpose of identifying potentially qualified minority professional applicants.

The Firm actively participates in its headquarters' (New York) annual state MWBE conference in order to develop opportunities and relationships to promote maximum MWBE participation. SWS seeks to create value for society through a broad range of community initiatives, volunteerism, and supporting under-utilized organizations. SWS places a specific focus on collaborating with, advocating for, and engaging minority- and women-owned law firms as underwriters' counsel, bond counsel, and/or special or co-counsel on transactions in which we are involved.

- SWS actively maintains a policy to assist local and regional minority law firms to gain valuable municipal bond experience by utilizing them as sole or co-underwriter's counsel when it is selected as senior manager;
- As an underwriter, the Firm consistently and successfully places significant minority firms in our financial transactions as co-underwriter, bond counsel, special counsel, and underwriters' counsel; and;
- SWS makes every effort to utilize Historically Underutilized Businesses for any available work associated with all financings it accepts.

SWS uses various certified firm directories to search for certified MWDBEs capable of performing the services required by the Firm. To demonstrate SWS's commitment to include certified MWDBEs in its business process, the Firm has worked or is currently working with:

- Miracle Technologies Inc.: provides SWS's IT/Computer Infrastructure design, setup, management, computer networking and Windows and Linux servers desktop support, Network Security Routers, switches, wireless Cloud IT Solutions.
- Alpha Travel: provides travel service /support for employees.
- The Switzer Group: provided architecture/design services for SWS's New York headquarters re-design in 2009, 2016, 2019 and will provide the same for planned 2021 construction.
- Ahmad Zaffarese, LLC: provided legal counsel services when SWS served as an underwriter on several Pennsylvania and New Jersey agency transactions.
