Exhibit 3:

On May 11, 2019, BofA Securities, Inc. ("BofA Securities") agreed with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated ("MLPF&S") to assume the assets and liabilities of the Global Banking and Markets business previously conducted by MLPF&S, including the regulatory and legal matters below.

In the ordinary course of business, BofA Securities is subject to regulatory examinations, information gathering requests, inquiries, and investigations ("Regulatory Inquiries") by various federal or state securities regulatory agencies and attorneys general, other local, state, and federal agencies, law enforcement, and self-regulatory organizations (collectively, "Regulators"); and is on occasion a defendant in or party to pending threatened legal actions and proceedings. In connection with formal and informal Regulatory Inquiries, BofA Securities receives numerous requests, subpoenas and orders for documents, testimony and information in connection with various aspects of their regulated activities, and in some cases regulatory action has been taken against BofA Securities. BofA Securities believes that it has cooperated fully with the Regulators in all such inquiries to date and intends to continue to cooperate fully with the Regulators in all such inquiries involving BofA Securities in the future.

Bank of America Corporation (the "Corporation"), BofA Securities' ultimate parent, makes all required disclosures in its Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, which are updated in Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") ("Regulatory Filings"). BofA Securities makes all required disclosures in its Form BD and ADV filings ("Form BD and ADV Filings") with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). Those Regulatory Filings and Form BD and ADV Filings include disclosures of Regulatory Inquiries as required by federal law and applicable regulations. The Regulatory Filings are publicly available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. The Form BD Filings are publicly available on the FINRA BrokerCheck system at http://brokercheck.finra.org/. The Form ADV filings are publicly available on the SEC's Investment Adviser Search website at: http://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/default.aspx.

The Corporation cannot confirm or deny the existence of any other, non-public Regulatory Inquiry conducted by any Regulator unless required to do so by law.

Please note the following public matters involving BofA Securities' public finance business over the past five (5) years:

Municipal Bond Underwriting False Claims Act Lawsuits

Beginning in January 2016, the Corporation was served, along with a number of other banks, with lawsuits brought by Roger Hayes and Talbot Heppenstall (the "Relators") in Illinois, California, New Jersey and New York under those state's respective False Claims Acts. In each case, the Relators alleged that the defendants falsely represented to state and municipal officials that they would obtain the lowest yields/highest prices for new negotiated municipal bond offerings in order to secure underwriting engagements for those offerings. All of the cases have been dismissed or withdrawn: The Illinois lawsuit was dismissed by the trial court without prejudice in September 2017; the California lawsuit was dismissed by the trial court with prejudice in March 2019; the New Jersey lawsuit was dismissed by the trial court without prejudice in early May 2019; and the Relators voluntarily discontinued the New York lawsuit in June 2019.

VRDO False Claims Act Lawsuits

Since November 2017, the Corporation has been served, along with a number of other banks, with lawsuits brought by Edelweiss Fund, LLC ("Edelweiss") in Illinois, California, Massachusetts, New Jersey and New York under those state's respective False Claims Acts. In February 2019, the Massachusetts state court permitted the substitution of Bjorn Johan Rosenberg for Edelweiss as the relator in the case. In each case, Edelweiss and Rosenberg purport to assert claims that the defendants engaged in a coordinated "robo-setting" scheme under which they allegedly set the rates for Variable Rate Demand Obligations ("VRDOs") mechanically in order to keep the rates artificially high and thereby reduce the chances of having to remarket the bonds. To date, the Attorney Generals of each of these states have declined to join in the lawsuits. The Massachusetts Supreme Court affirmed the trial court's dismissal in May 2021. The California lawsuit was dismissed by the trial court on in June 2021.

VRDO Antitrust Actions

On February 20, 2019, the City of Philadelphia filed a putative antitrust class action complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York alleging that several of the Corporation's affiliates and affiliates of six other large banks, acting in their capacity as remarketing agents for VRDOs, conspired between 2008 and 2016 to artificially inflate interest rates on VRDOs to the detriment of their municipal issuer customers. The complaint asserts causes of action (i) under Section 1 of the Sherman Antitrust Act and Sections 4 and 16 of the Clayton Antitrust Act, (ii) for breach of contract, and (iii) for unjust enrichment. On March 25, 2019, the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, Maryland filed a similar class action antitrust complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York against several Bank of America affiliates and affiliates of other banks. The trial judge has ordered the cases to be consolidated. On June 3, 2021, a new VRDO antitrust class action complaint was filed in the Southern District of New York on behalf of a proposed subclass of California municipal issuers and asserting several claims under California law based on the same alleged conduct. On August 6, 2021, Plaintiffs in the main case filed an amended complaint that includes the California plaintiffs as named parties and otherwise absorbs/covers their claims.

Puerto Rico Lawsuits

On May 2, 2019, the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico ("FOMB"), as a representative of the Commonwealth and other debtor entities in the Puerto Rico bankruptcy, filed an adversary complaint in U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico against Bank of America and numerous other financial institutions that served as underwriters on 17 bond issuances by the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and its instrumentalities in the years leading up to the bankruptcy. The FOMB asserts claims against the underwriters for: (i) aiding and abetting breaches of fiduciary duty on the theory that the bonds deepened the Commonwealth's insolvency and violated Puerto Rico's constitutional debt limits, (ii) rescission of transfer under Puerto Rico and Federal Bankruptcy laws on the theory that the underwriters received fees in connection with the bonds without delivering any value to the Commonwealth because the bonds only increased the Commonwealth's insolvency, (iii) unjust enrichment based on the fees the underwriters received in connection with the bonds, and (iv) breach of the underwriting agreements by insufficiently disclosing in the offering documents the compensation the underwriters received and potential conflicts of interest. The complaint also alleges that certain underwriters entered into interest rate swap agreements with the Commonwealth and asserts claims related to those swap agreements for (i) aiding and abetting breaches of fiduciary duty on the theory that the swap counterparties encouraged the Commonwealth to pass legislation allowing the swaps and then encouraged the Commonwealth to enter into the swaps in connection with bonds they underwrote, and (ii) unjust enrichment based on termination fees the swap counterparties received.

In addition, Ambac Assurance Corporation ("AMBAC"), Financial Guaranty Insurance Company ("FGIC") and National Public Finance Guarantee Corporation have brought lawsuits in a local court in Puerto Rico against Merrill Lynch and certain affiliates and 8 other underwriters for one or more bonds issued from 2001 to 2007 by the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and its agencies. The plaintiffs allege that they were induced to insure the bonds based upon defendants assurances that they had reasonably investigated the statements in the Official Statements and that the underwriters had a reasonable basis for believing that the statements were true and complete. The complaint is based on 2 equitable doctrines of Puerto Rican law: Doctrina de Actos Propious (i.e., "doctrine of own acts," which protects a third party who relies in good faith on the veracity of manifestations or actions of another); and Unilateral Declaration of Will (i.e., the creation of an obligation through a unilateral act in the form of a concrete promise on which others are intended to rely). On July 9, 2021, the FGIC complaint was dismissed with prejudice. On July 30, 2021, the AMBAC complaint was also dismissed.

BofA Securities' registered officers and employees make required disclosures in their Form U-4, which are filed with FINRA pursuant to a directive from the SEC. These Form U-4 filings are publicly available on the FINRA BrokerCheck system at http://brokercheck.finra.org/.
