

9. Describe your firm's corporate citizenship and commitment to the City, participation in charitable programs or scholarships in 2012, and policies with regard to the use of women-owned, minority-owned and disadvantaged business enterprises. Does your firm procure goods and services locally?

Our firm has a history of providing opportunities for after-school, summer employment and internships to a variety of young persons. We have been an active member of our local community, whether serving as volunteer board member to various not-for-profit organizations or joint venturing with larger firm to co-sponsor various community and public advocacy functions. We have actively pursued and utilized MWBE firms in the procurement of goods and services whenever possible. BMcB has been a part of numerous charitable contributions including the following, among others:

MOAD Gala (Museum of the African Diaspora)
100 Black Men, Inc.
Huckleberry Youth Programs
BMW (Black Men & Women Community Fund
Watts Boys and Girls Club

Compton College Foundation
Friends of Los Angeles Community College District
Richmond PAL – (Police Activities League)
