

9. Corporate Citizenship

- The De La Rosa & Co. Charitable Foundation gives back to the communities we serve by providing financial support to local non-profit and educational organizations that support children, education and citizenship.
- Los Angeles-based organizations we've supported include: PUENTE Learning Center, City Year, Girls Today Women Tomorrow, RENEWLA, Los Angeles Community College District Foundation, Loyola Marymount University, Southwest Voter Registration Education Project.
- The centerpiece of the De La Rosa & Co. Charitable Foundation is our Fabric of Society Essay Contest. DLR has awarded well over $100,000 in scholarships. Winners have included high school seniors from 13 Los Angeles-area schools.
- Yes, DLR procures goods and services locally. The firm purchases food, beverages, and office supplies from local vendors on a weekly basis.

