Office of the City Administrative Officer
Office of the Chief Legislative Analyst
Request for Bids to Establish an Economic Development Department and a Related Nonprofit Organization for the City of Los Angeles

Deadline: Friday, August 31, 2012

The Office of the City Administrative Officer Office of Economic Analysis (CAO/OEA) and the Office of the Chief Legislative Analyst (CLA) request bids for an economist or team of economists to analyze and provide recommendations to the City to establish an Economic Development Department (EDD) and a related, new economic development nonprofit organization (Nonprofit) to implement the City's economic development goals and projects.

Project Background

As a result of the elimination of the City's former Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA), the City no longer has access to the economic development and financing tools that had been used by the CRA to revitalize communities and generate new revenue for the City. The closure of the CRA presents an unusual opportunity for the City to create a new economic development model to help the City define and meet its larger economic goals to create new jobs, attract new businesses and industries, maximize the City's assets, and increase General Fund revenue.

In June 2012, the Mayor and Council approved, in concept, the establishment of an economic development entity comprised of a new EDD and a Nonprofit that would contract with the City. The EDD and the Nonprofit would carry out the City's economic goals and projects (C.F. 08-3050).

Under the same Council action, the CAO and the CLA were instructed to secure a consultant to assist in the development of the framework and roles of the EDD and Nonprofit. The consultant would propose the roles, responsibilities and tools required to implement the City's economic development goals. Ultimately, the consultant would provide a report to the CAO and CLA that would be submitted to the Mayor and Council. The report, due on Friday, December 14, 2012, would include analysis and recommendations including, but not limited to, the following actions:

1. Analyze best practices in the economic development field; evaluate the City's economic development structure; and make recommendations for implementation of the EDD and Nonprofit.
2. Propose an EDD and Nonprofit framework that addresses the City's economic development concerns in a holistic and proactive manner, with effective administration, task forces and programs.

3. Provide an analysis on how the City can integrate asset management activities into its new economic development model.
4. Address how the EDD and Nonprofit would perform the following: a) create quality jobs in diverse sectors and/or industries to reduce the City's unemployment rate; b) revitalize economically depressed areas of the City to create economic opportunities; c) compete for new and developing industries; d) maximize the City's assets; e) generate tax revenue to increase revenue to the General Fund; f) leverage the resources in the City's Proprietary Departments (Port of Los Angeles, Los Angeles World Airports, Los Angeles Department of Water and Power) to increase economic development; g) coordinate economic development functions and service delivery; h) create a business-friendly environment; and, i) provide effective policy guidance and productive program implementation with fixed responsibility and accountability.
5. Factor in various funding sources for the EDD and the Nonprofit, such as new tax increment funding from the former CRA for low/moderate-income housing, Community Development Block Grant funds, Economic Development Reserve Fund, fees from real estate and property management, site specific tax revenues, new market tax credits and fees; other transaction and processing fees; and private and nonprofit foundation investments.
6. Prepare and present an action plan with information regarding any proposed new entities such as the EDD and Nonprofit including, but not limited to, the following: staffing, program budgets and personnel implications for the new entities; mission and roles of the new entities; and identification of the City functions to be consolidated into the new EDD.
7. Ensure that the action plan includes consideration of findings and recommendations from stakeholders, experts and consultants that are available to the City over the next few months, including integration of recent survey work by leaders in the field of economic development programs and public-private partnerships such as Enterprise Community Partners, Inc., Housing and Urban Development Department's OneCPD Technical Assistance and the USC Sol Price School of Public Policy. Include a nationwide survey of the major community redevelopment agencies under reform and provide input on best practices.
8. Include the steps necessary for City implementation of the EDD and Nonprofit including an analysis of the following: organization structure; identification of powers, duties and responsibilities; staff and resources; determination regarding the governing body and staff and whether they should be recruited, appointed, elected and/or hired, reporting and oversight relationships with Council and its standing committees; budget; and a recommended implementation timeline.

Project Factors

Factors to be incorporated in the analysis of the proposed Project should include, but are not limited to, the areas in the two lists below. The Initial Factors should be undertaken first and provide a foundation for the work to follow (Secondary Factors). Your RFB response should indicate which of the following Initial and Secondary Factors your firm/team can analyze and address in a report due by Friday, December 14, 2012.

Initial Factors

The Initial Factors focus on the preliminary analysis and recommendations for the proposed Nonprofit. It is anticipated that the consultant will coordinate and perform the following activities:

1. Validate the concept of the Nonprofit in the context of the creation of a new economic development model for the City.
2. Describe the relationship of the Nonprofit to the EDD, including the Nonprofit's specific roles, organization and systems.
3. Recommend an organizational structure for the Nonprofit, including governance, staffing and other requirements. Describe how the governing body and staff will be recruited, appointed, elected and/or hired. Determine whether or not there would be potential candidates for these positions.
4. Help define the framework, mission and goals for the Nonprofit.
5. Describe the relationship between the Nonprofit and the City, including a comparison of economic development roles and responsibilities of the Nonprofit versus the City. Describe what the Nonprofit and EDD are authorized to do and what protocols they should follow.
6. Develop a budget for the Nonprofit and identify short-term and ongoing funding sources that do not impact the City's General Fund.
7. Prepare a status update to the CAO and CLA that summarizes the analysis that has been performed and recommends in detail how to create the Nonprofit. In your firm's RFB response, indicate the date that you believe your firm/team can provide this status update.

Secondary Factors

The secondary factors include defining the framework and roles relative to the Nonprofit and the EDD. The City expects that the consultant will participate in the development of the Nonprofit. It is anticipated that the consultant will coordinate and perform the following activities:

1. Assist the City to identify members for the Nonprofit's governing entity, management and staff.
2. Assist the City to secure funding for the Nonprofit.
3. Advise the City on defining the framework, mission and goals for the EDD.
4. Review and update the description of the relationship between the EDD and the Nonprofit.
5. Develop a budget for the EDD and identify short-term and ongoing funding sources that do not impact the City's General Fund.
6. Prepare a report by Friday, December 14, 2012 that summarizes the all of the analysis performed for each of the factors your firm/team proposed to undertake.

General Project Criteria

In addition to the actions in the Project Background and in the Initial and Secondary Factors, the proposal and the final products should include, but are not limited to, the criteria in the list below. Your firm should add appropriate items based on your experience and what you believe will provide the best direction and results for the City:

1. Open to collaboration with other firms.
2. Willing to work under a Notice to Proceed while the contract is being developed.
3. Identification and inclusion of community outreach in the analysis and development of the Nonprofit and EDD, such as the Chamber of Commerce or the Business Improvement Districts (BIDs).
4. Identification of tools for the City to measure the outcome and success of the EDD and Nonprofit.
5. Identification of the City's current economic development goals.
6. Development of new economic development goals for the City.
7. Willing to assist with preparing documents relative to the establishment and implementation of the Nonprofit with the ability to subcontract where additional expertise is needed (implementation of the Nonprofit and the EDD is anticipated by July 1, 2013). The City reserves the right to involve the consultant in implementation activities; therefore, please include consultation costs associated with establishment and implementation of the Nonprofit and EDD separately in your firm's response.
