June 2020 - The Firm consented to the sanctions and entry of findings that it failed to report to TRACE transactions in TRACE-eligible agency debt securities within the time required, constituting a pattern or practice of late reporting without exceptional circumstances. The finding stated that the Firm’s violations were the result of human errors by traders or administrative staff, as well as amendments to correct, among other things, settlement dates, execution times, changes to price and volume that were not completed within 15 minutes of execution. The Firm was censured and fined $20,000.

December 2019 - The Firm consented to the sanctions and to the entry of findings that it provided inaccurate or misleading statements in its issue price certifications in connection with municipal offerings. The findings stated that the Firm acted as the sole underwriter for numerous municipal offerings and, in its capacity as sole underwriter, prepared and provided issuers with issue price certificates in connection with the offerings. Issue price certificates typically include representations that, among other things, at least 10% of each maturity of the bonds were first sold to the public at the initial offering prices set forth in the official statement for the offering. However, the inaccurate or misleading statements of the Firm were regarding the percentage of each maturity that was sold or was reasonably expected to be sold, to the public. The findings also stated that the Firm to establish and maintain a supervisory system and written supervisory procedures that were reasonably designed to ensure the accuracy of the representations the Firm made to issuers in its issue price certificates. The Firm was Censured and fined $85,000.

March 2019 - The SEC deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative and cease-and-desist proceedings be instituted against D.A. Davidson & Co. on the basis of this order and respondent’s offer the commission find that these proceedings arise out of breaches of fiduciary duty and inadequate disclosures by the respondent in connection with its mutual find share class selection practices and the fees it received. At times during the relevant period, respondent purchased, recommended, or held for advisory clients mutual fund share classes that charged 12b-1 fees instead of lower-cost share classes of the same funds for which the clients were eligible. Respondent received 12b-1 fees in connection with these investments. Respondent failed to disclose in its Form ADV or otherwise the conflicts of interest related to (a) its receipt of 12b-1 fees and/or (b) its selection of mutual fund share classes that pay such fees. During the relevant period, respondent received 12b-1 fees for advising clients to invest in or hold such mutual fund share classes. As a result of the conduct, respondent willfully violated Sections 206(2) and 207 of the Advisers Act. Respondent is censured, shall pay disgorgement of $613,957.83 and prejudgment interest of $40,318.58 and comply with undertakings in the offer of settlement.

July 2018 – D.A. Davidson self-reported to the Vermont Department of Financial Regulation related to unauthorized activity of a financial advisor in the State of Vermont. D.A. Davidson agreed to resolve the matter by (1) paying a fine of $60,000; (2) agreeing to revise policies and procedures to ensure that when an unregistered Vermont transaction is identified, either (a) it is placed on hold or (b) the transaction will be effected by another agent who is registered in Vermont; and (3) agreeing to revise policies and procedures relating to trust accounts and multiple co-trustees.
