J.P. Morgan Global Supplier Diversity 2022
Global Supplier Diversity
2022
MISSION

For almost 30 years JPMorgan Chase has been committed to building an inclusive supply chain by developing and engaging diverse businesses. The firm spends about $2 billion annually with diverse suppliers - defined as businesses that are certified by a third party as being at least 51% owned operated and controlled by a member of a historically underrepresented group.

The Global Supplier Diversity mission is comprised of three pillars: 1) Increase diversity within the JPMorgan Chase supply chain; 2) Create a supply chain that mirrors our customers’ demographics; and 3) Drive economic growth in the communities in which we do business. Education and development is also an important component of our program. We support the success of diverse business owners through programs hosted by business advocacy organizations and by sharing our own subject matter expertise.

We are guided by our vision of creating an inclusive economy with equal access to business success for all.

Senior management’s commitment, policies, procedures, strategies, and results demonstrate that supplier diversity is an important part of our Diversity Equity and Inclusion strategy. We are proactive in our outreach to diverse businesses, connecting them with internal and external decision-makers.

RACIAL EQUITY COMMITMENT

In 2020, JPMorgan Chase committed an additional $30 billion over five years to advance racial equity. The firm is harnessing its expertise in business, policy and philanthropy to address the key drivers of the racial wealth divide, reduce systemic racism against Black, Hispanic and Latino people, and support employees. As part of this commitment, JPMorgan Chase has pledged to grow Black, Hispanic and Latino-owned businesses through business lending, coaching, technical assistance and capital; and spend an additional $750 million with these businesses.

In 2021 JPMorgan Chase has more than doubled its first-year spend goal and has increased the number of new Black Hispanic and Latino suppliers by 40% over 2020.
CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

JPMorgan Chase defines a “Diverse Supplier” as one certified by a designated third-party as being 51% owned, operated and controlled by members of historically underrepresented groups, including:

- Minority-Owned Business Enterprise (MBE)
- Women-Owned Business Enterprise (WBE)
- Veteran-Owned Business Enterprise (VBE)
- Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Business Enterprise (SDVBE / DVBE)
- LGBT-Owned Business Enterprise (LGBTE)
- Disability-Owned Business Enterprise (DOBE)
- Small Business Enterprise (SBE)

EXTERNAL PARTNER ORGANIZATIONS | CERTIFYING BODIES

We partner with several organizations and their regional (or local) affiliates for support to execute on our supplier diversity objectives, including third-party certification standards. The following are examples of our largest community partners:

- National Minority Supplier Development Council
- Women’s Business Enterprise National Council
- National Veteran Owned Business Association
- National Veteran Business Development Council
- National LGBT Chamber of Commerce
- Disability:IN
- WEConnect International
- U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
- U.S. Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce
- Minority Supplier Development United Kingdom

These organizations provide a platform for supporting our program, as well as networking directly with diverse business owners.

EDUCATION & DEVELOPMENT

An important component of the Global Supplier Diversity program is the education and development of diverse entrepreneurs. Both internally and through our relationships with external partners, such as the Women’s Business Enterprise National Council and the National Minority Supplier Development Council, we host, sponsor and participate in educational events for entrepreneurs from historically underrepresented groups. In addition, partner with business schools and other organizations to provide tactical and executive level education to diverse business owners.

CONNECT WITH JPMORGAN CHASE

Diverse Suppliers are invited to register at jpmorganchase.com/supplierdiversity

Questions may be directed to Email: supplier.diversity@jpmchase.com
SUPPLIER DIVERSITY AND STRATEGIC SOURCING PROCESS

To ensure that we maintain a steady pipeline of eligible diverse suppliers, we work closely with them through each stage of their relationship with us.

We invite diverse suppliers interested in doing business, or currently doing business with JPMorgan Chase to register via the JPMorgan Chase Supplier Registration Portal at www.jpmorganchase.com/SupplierDiversity. Registered suppliers go through an initial evaluation and qualification.

We have dedicated sourcing and business development professionals to ensure that diverse suppliers are able to navigate our processes, fulfill their contracts, and grow their business successfully with JPMorgan Chase.

Supplier Diversity criteria is integrated into the strategic sourcing process. We strive to achieve the optimal combination of service, quality and price for the products and services purchased through our procurement organization. Together, we help provide diverse suppliers with a broad range of project opportunities. We partner with sourcing managers and our business units to ensure active Supplier Diversity involvement in every step of the sourcing process. Qualified and certified diverse suppliers are identified from our Diverse Supplier Registration Portal and other external supplier databases to source diverse vendors that can meet our business needs.

MANAGEMENT TRACKING & REPORTING

JPMorgan Chase has robust management, tracking and reporting systems to support our supplier diversity initiatives. The firm tracks spend by each of the diversity classifications.

TIER 2 PROGRAM

JPMorgan Chase consistently makes good faith efforts to provide contracting opportunities to diverse suppliers. In addition to purchasing directly from diverse suppliers, JPMorgan Chase also encourages its prime suppliers – both diverse and non-diverse – to include diverse businesses in their supply chains. We also assist our suppliers in expanding their supplier networks to include more diverse vendors. We track this Tier-2 spend by asking our suppliers to report their diverse supplier spend to us on a quarterly basis.

To enhance our impact above and beyond what the firm spends with diverse suppliers, we are mobilizing over 100 of our top suppliers, known as “Gold Suppliers,” to mirror the firm’s commitment to supplier diversity by enhancing their own supplier diversity programs and their efforts to spend more with diverse suppliers over three years. Understanding that different companies have different levels of diversity program maturity, we are meeting them where they are and providing them with mentoring, coaching and education so they are better equipped to run a successful supplier diversity program of their own.

This approach is focused on comprehensive supplier diversity program growth, not just spend increases. While we’re targeting increases over the next three years, the larger purpose is to have these companies develop sustainable programs that will create new diverse spending for decades to come.

J.P. Morgan Response to Question #5

JPMorgan Chase & Co. and/or its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Firm”) are defendants or putative defendants in numerous legal proceedings, including private civil litigations and regulatory/government investigations. The litigations range from individual actions involving a single plaintiff to class action lawsuits with potentially millions of class members. Investigations involve both formal and informal proceedings, by both governmental agencies and self-regulatory organizations. These legal proceedings are at varying stages of adjudication, arbitration or investigation, and involve each of the Firm’s lines of business and geographies and a wide variety of claims (including common law tort and contract claims and statutory antitrust, securities and consumer protection claims), some of which present novel legal theories. Based on current knowledge, the Firm believes it has asserted meritorious defenses to the claims asserted against it in its currently outstanding legal proceedings, intends to defend itself vigorously in all such matters and does not believe that any pending legal proceeding would have a material effect on the Firm’s performance of the services contemplated by the RFP. For further discussion, please refer to JPMorgan Chase & Co.’s publicly-filed disclosures, including its most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (available at: http://investor.shareholder.com/jpmorganchase/sec.cfm) and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC’s FINRA BrokerCheck Report (available at FINRA.org).
