As a WBE and SBE, we strive to associate with and conduct business with other like entities. Our CEO/CFO Nancy Mullally also volunteers as an inspector for other businesses applying for WBE status, therefore she has direct and purposeful interactions with other like entities. In addition, our President, William Mullally, has also been designated as a Disabled Veteran, in recognition of his serving in the Army and spending time in Korea prior to serving in the Vietnam War.

At our corporate office in Walnut Creek, our main office supplies vendor is Blaisdell's (formerly known as Give Something Back), the largest woman-owned business products supplier in Northern California. They are a certified WBE and are certified by the WOSB, a Member of the CA Green Business Network & a BBB Accredited Business. Their team gives back to the community by donating their time to volunteer for activities, supporting collection drives, and financially contributing to a wide variety of local nonprofits.
